Flavour with History

How do you combine the pleasure of good food, taste the freshness of an excellent Vinho Verde, take in history full of national symbolism and natural surroundings? By passing through Guimarães, the Cradle of Portugal.

To get to know Portugal you should start at the beginning. Guimarães is where Portugal was born. Monuments such as the Castle or Palace of the Dukes of Bragança are required stop off points.

This connection with history is inextricable from Guimarães' ability to respect the past and make use of it to establish itself in the present and the future. This symbiosis is evident in the recognition of the Historic Centre as a Cultural Heritage of Humanity Site, attracting thousands of tourists throughout the year.

Breathe in the History of a legacy, while also taking in the value of Culture of contemporary buildings such as the José de Guimarães International Arts Centre, the Vila Flor Cultural Centre and the House of Memory. The dynamism and quality of its cultural programme makes Guimarães stand out on the European scene.

When you arrive in Guimarães go on an adventure of the senses, with the magnificent view from the Penha mountain that is a candidate to become a Local Protected Area. In Portugal's Cradle City there is plenty to feel, smell, hear, see, touch and taste. The art of good cooking and good eating is associated to this region, through regional dishes, traditional recipes and typical sweets from Guimarães.

The final toast should be made with Vinho Verde, on a visit to the modern, age-old or family Estates where tradition and modernity in cultivation and production of Vinho Verde takes us to an excellent destination... the taste of history.

Founded in 1962, the Adega Guimarães (Guimaraes Winery) focuses on processing grapes from associated farms and their sale as high quality products at a competitive price.

Our vineyards are planted on granitic soils along the slopes of the River Ave, and produce mostly white grapes, notably Loureiro, Arinto, Alvarinho and Trajadura, varieties adapted to the terroir of the region and which express the full freshness and aromas typical of vinho verde. Because of the care we take of our grapes, our vinhos verdes are awarded, year after year, with several national and international prizes.

Casa de Sezim

Casa de Sezim came to the family of the current owners in 1376, through a royal donation, which according to a parchment from that year at the estate, Maria Mendes Serrazinha gave to Afonso Martins – descendant of D. João Freitas companion of the King of Portugal, D. Fernando I.

The beauty of Casa de Sezim, the harmony of its lines, the monumentality of its façade and the collection of panoramic wallpapers from the first half of the 19th century that line the walls of its lounges (the largest in the Iberian Peninsula), in recent years has awakened international curiosity.

The Vinho Verdes of Casa de Sezim were already highly appreciated in the Middle Ages as mentioned in a document from 1396. The strong tradition of quality, especially as regards the white vinhos verdes from selected grapes, continues. Production is strictly limited and fully produced through integrated production methods.

Quinta da Aveleira

There has been word of the cultivated land of Quinta da Aveleira, since the time of King D. Dinis – in the 14th century, in a request from Pedro Colaço and his wife to the Cathedral of Santa Maria de Guimarães and its connection continues on to the distinguished families who actively participated in our history. Over time, Quinta da Aveleira grew and kept pace with the different stages of our agriculture, but always keeping the tradition of producing red grapes in the surroundings and beautiful trellised branches bordering the green fields.

Nowadays, the estate belongs to the Vieira e Brito Family which has renewed their 4 hectares of vineyard, focusing on the latest production methods and the traditional varieties of the Vinho Verde region – Loureiro, Trajadura and Arinto, keeping the and starting the process of modernisation of the Winery.

In a beautiful manor house which dates back to the 11th century, surrounded by the green of the vineyard and of the camellias, making the most of what is made with passion: the wine.

Quinta da Cancela

Quinta da Cancela has been in the same family for six generations. It consists of a small area, producing only vinho verde wines and sparkling reds and rosés in an artisanal way and by hand, but with the specific care that modern oenology requires.

The estate has 2.5 hectares of vineyards, producing approximately 10,000 bottles, with red grapes alone.

Discover the fruit, freshness and uniqueness of the new generation vinho verde reds! Come and enjoy our northern hospitality, our wines and our family history. See you soon!

Quinta de S. Gião

Quinta de São Gião has been a family property since 1972, and its connection to the production of vinho verde wine and the care of the vineyards being one of the mainstays of this property.

The renewed image of the trademark, the artistic interpretation of the land and vineyards, and its commitment to excellence were inspired by the artistic legacy of the painter, Jorge Pinheiro. The connection with art expressed by our labels serves to inspire the production of a vinho verde wine of quality.

The Quinta de São Gião wines are produced from its own grapes and use an integrated production model. At the present time, a policy for investment in the market, expansion and conversion of the vineyards and the modernisation of infrastructures is the basis for a new solid and ambitious project and, for 2021, there are plans to begin the construction of a new winery, with an architectural design which is unique in the region, which plans to connect the art of winemaking with contemporary art.

The Quinta will have a winery with an art gallery as an initial approach to future investment in the sector of wine tourism.

Quinta do Ermizio

Quinta do Ermizio, so named because of Dominus Ermigius, steward of the court of King Afonso Henriques, extends from the Ave Valley along the slope as far as Bouça do Saraiva, covering a number of ecological niches.

The Alvarinho, Loureiro and Trajadura grape varieties are grown according to environmentally friendly techniques, controlling the strength of the vines and favouring a gentle ripening of the grapes.

The harvest is manual, careful in the selection of the bunches, with each plot and grape variety picked in its own time, so that the grapes are at optimal point of ripening. The vinification process is minimalist, with little intervention in the winery, so as to preserve the character of the terroir.

Each wine is markedly different, discreet in the nose and with intense mineral character and freshness in the mouth. The develop sumptuously in the bottle and should be drunk slowly, with food, over a good conversation.

Quinta dos Encados

The Quinta dos Encados wine comes from one of the most beautiful and historical regions in the north of Portugal. It is situated to the east of the Monte da Penha hills, and our quinta has already dedicated four decades to the cultivation of vineyards and the production of wine. This property is on the slopes of the Penha hills surrounded by nature, and is both beautiful and fertile for the creation of a wine of the same name which is full of tradition and dedication.

Armando Areias, the founder of Quinta dos Encados, acquired the property in the 1970's and began by planting fruit trees. A few years later, he planted the first vineyards which now have an area of 8 hectares. The children of Armando Areias wanted to keep the passion of the patriarch alive, and have continued the production and bottling of the wine created at Quinta dos Encados. Nowadays, the tradition is continued by Maria José Areias and her family.

This wine is fresh and elegant, and combines the perfection of the grape varieties it is produced from - the uniqueness and delicacy of the Loureiro variety and the minerality and freshness of the Arinto which makes it an excellent ambassador for Vinho Verde. This wine honours the founder of Quinta dos Encados, Armando Areias, whose memories are preserved by his signature on the wines produced at the Quinta.

"Every bottle of Quinta dos Encados wine carries the family history, knowledge and dedication to this "fruit of the land and toil of men".
