ESPAÇO OFICINA

WRITING LABORATORY FOR DIALECTICAL THEATER - SÉRGIO DE CARVALHO

Sérgio de Carvalho is a playwright, director, theater researcher and founder of Companhia do Latão, a theater group from São Paulo. In September, Companhia do Latão will cross the ocean as part of the Mostra São Palco, a Brazilian theater festival in Portugal produced by Teatrão, which will take place in several cities. We took advantage of the ride to invite Sérgio de Carvalho to spend two days in Guimarães and provide an intensive Theater Writing Laboratory, namely to share his experience and knowledge about dialectical theater and his inevitable connection to Brecht.

The sessions will take place on a Monday and Tuesday, days when the theaters are usually closed and the people who work in them try to rest. The challenge is for them (and anyone interested in learning how to write for theater) to exchange rest for thought and meet at Espaço Oficina to write, trace and take risks.

Target audience: actors, directors, playwrights, students, people interested in writing for theater

A Participação é gratuita mediante inscrição prévia e seleção.
